Bluejackets, Marines to Clash Oct. 28

Third Annual Navy-Marine football game will be held at 2 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 28, in the Pasadena Rose Bowl, according to Master Sgt. Arnold King, Pasadena Marine recruiter.

The San Diego Marine Corps Recruit Depot will represent the Marines, and Skylanders of the Naval Air Station in San Diego will carry the Navy Blue.

Free tickets to the game, sponsored by the city of Pasadena, are now available at the Marine Corps Recruiting Station in the Pasadena Post Office Building.

LEGG ARRANGES PUBLIC TOUR OF WATER PROJECTS

Flood control and water conservation projects from Long Beach to San Gabriel Canyon, upon which San Gabriel Valley will depend for future protection of life and property, will be opened for public inspection—some of it for the first time—on a special tour arranged for Monday, Oct. 29, by Supervisor Herbert C. Legg.

The cavalcade has been opened to all city officials, business leaders, and others interested in work to provide the First Supervisorial District with facilities to control floods, and to save every drop of rain water possible.

The tour will start at 9 a.m. at the Spring Street bridge job over the San Gabriel River, north of Long Beach, under police loudspeaker escort.

War Bride to Revisit Native New Zealand

After an absence of six years, Mrs. Herbert J. Struthers of 657 Woodland Drive will return by air to her native New Zealand Thursday, Nov. 1.

A war bride, Mrs. Struthers came to this country shortly after marrying Mr. Struthers, then a member of the US Marine Corps.

Accompanying her on the trip next week will be her young son, Jeffrey. Mrs. Struthers, who expects to be gone five or six months, will visit with her mother, Mrs. Eleanor Cooper, and four sisters of Wellington.

FIRE FLAMES

THANKS! Thanks for the passing of FIRE PREVENTION WEEK without a fire call.

We tried to spread the gospel of the importance of prevention of fire without boring. Despite all this it will be necessary to repeat the story week after week and you can look forward to it, lest you forget.

The past week was probably as dry and hot as any we can expect to experience. Some of the prophets of the fire department can see a real wet winter and we are wishing they are right.

The Kellys of the Fire Department are the parents of a future fire fighter. Born last week, he should be fire conscious by now. "Kelly" was proudly passing cigars around at the last meeting and from the expression on his face, one would think he was the mother.

Another Kelly to become a fire fighter is "Bill" Kelly, a brother of the above mentioned proud father. He, with Willard Diemer and Bob Heasley are now regular registered Auxiliary members—if the City Council approves.

A drill last Friday looked like a demonstration of a fire boat. So many streams were in the air that the owls of the night began to ride the waves.

Captain Tom's wearing the new shiny badges recently pinned on his coat—had his crew well under control and though much pressure was forced through the nozzles, there were no mishaps.

From the corner of moment, Harold Spears was missing and it was sad news to learn that he is visiting a hospital for a thorough check-up. His pals in the corner looked like lost ducks.

The result was that Louie George, acting as "Fine Collector," was unable to make a showing that excelled. He did well, we must admit.

Louie was doing the job in the absence of Joe Grippi, who is touring the East. Joe expects to take in the sights of the historical East coast and nearby landmarks.

The complicated drill of last Friday proved the necessity of such practice. So different from the ordinary, yet very apt to be necessary at some time, this sort of drill keeps us alert to the location of the many tools and adapters.

The regular engineers are called upon to search their minds for the different ways

VFW AUXILIARY LAUNCHES DRIVE FOR NEW MEMBERS

Sierra Madre's Veterans of Foreign Wars Auxiliary is launching a membership drive intended to enroll as many women veterans and veterans' wives as possible. In conjunction with the campaign, a spaghetti dinner is planned for Wednesday, Nov. 7, 5:30 p.m., at the Old Adobe on East Montecito. The public is invited, according to Mrs. Kitty Miller, press chairman.

"If the VFW Auxiliary is going to carry on the fight to keep America free, look after the rights and benefits of the veteran and his dependents, it must have strength," Mrs. Miller said. "Membership always has been the life-blood of any organization, and ours is no exception to the rule."

"Your new membership or renewal of membership in the VFW Auxiliary is your personal approval of everything we stand for," she continued.

Each active member of the unit has been asked to bring in at least one new member, Mrs. Miller pointed out.

The auxiliary meets twice monthly, for a social meeting on the first Wednesday of the month, and a business session on the third Wednesday. The organization is sponsoring the Blue Birds girls' group this year.

Mrs. Miller said women of the auxiliary will be visiting the Long Beach Veterans Hospital and serving on the refreshment committee.

SUSAN MARMION ATTENDS MILLS

Susan Marmion of Sierra Madre is listed among the new students at Mills College this fall.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Henry Marmion, 91 E. Orange Grove, she began her first semester activities on the Oakland campus two weeks ago.

Throughout the current academic year, Miss Marmion will take part in a series of gala festivities commemorating the historic college's 100th year of existence.

Veterans Await Costume Party

Following a goblinish theme, Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 3208 members and wives will stage a costume party Saturday, Oct. 27, at the Old Adobe.

Among the highlights of the evening will be the presentation of a gift to Richard Eyre, former commander of the post, who moved several months ago to San Clemente.

'REFRESHER' SQUARE DANCE MEETINGS SET

Sierra Madreans have been invited to attend the square dance refresher groups to be held at Loma Alta School, 435 E. Loma Alta Drive in Altadena, on Oct. 29, Nov. 1, 7, and 11.

All of the four sessions, featuring instruction in 50 of the Southland's most popular square dances, will be free.

This is part of the refresher program being staged by caller and square dance associations in Southern California, in conjunction with boards of education and recreation departments in the various communities.

City School Retains Photography Firm

The City School trustees retained Hoff-Howard Company last week to do photography work required during the school year.

The firm will take individual pupil pictures this fall for school record purposes, and, in the spring, will take classroom-group pictures, explained Superintendent Charles A. Skutt.

Bonebrake Offers Second Story: 'California Deer'

(Editor's note: several months ago the NEWS published in serial form another animal story by Percy L. Bonebrake entitled "The Mountain Lion." Many readers expressed interest in the story as it appeared from week to week, and now Mr. Bonebrake has offered this one, "The California Deer." It was the first story the pioneer Sierra Madren ever wrote for publication and appeared in January of 1904.)

JUNIOR RED CROSS CONFAB ATTENDED BY 16

Thirteen Sierra Madre boys and girls attended the regional Junior Red Cross conference held Saturday at Mark Keppel High School in Alhambra.

Local delegates were particularly interested in the discussion on Junior Red Cross enrollment drives and sending gift boxes for underprivileged children overseas. These activities will get under way in Sierra Madre next month.

Representing Sierra Madre Saturday were Michael Goldberg, Kay Keith, Sally Luckenbach, Foster Buckner, Marie Sorensen, Bob Willis, Pamela Olcott, Danny Armstrong, Marjorie Mack, Michelle Pannettier, Monique Pannettier, Gary Leer, and Linda Reavis.

Adult leaders attending from this city were Mrs. Hortense Wells, City School nurse; Mrs. Jean Lumsdon, teacher; and Mrs. Don Stoddard, chairman of the local Junior Red Cross Chapter.

Baptists Open Series Sunday

Dr. Charles Lyons Seasholes of Dayton, Ohio, will launch the "Preaching Mission" Sunday, Oct. 28, at Pasadena First Baptist Church, 75 N. Marengo. Dr. Seasholes will speak at the 11 a.m. service to open the

He was born in a deep, well-timbered canyon on the north slope of the little Mule range. His mother had been dry a year before his birth, and this year the winter had been a mild one, there was now plenty of feed and water, and she was in splendid condition to undertake the duties which his arrival demanded.

The little fellow was well contented with the world as he found it. True, the light was a little strong for his eyes, but the soft caressing touch of his mother's velvety tongue was fast relieving him of any unpleasant sensations. Under its magic touches, he felt a new strength permeating through his veins, and he suddenly discovered his legs; they were long, ungainly and awkward, like a pair of Dutch stilts, but they were the only means nature had provided him with which to get through the world. He tried to arise, and got his limbs fairly well collected under him, and after several attempts succeeded in getting up. As a means of locomotion, however, his legs were a successful failure; they showed a marked tendency to go in four different directions at once, which was manifestly impossible, and at his first attempt to walk he took an ignominious tumble.

After his exertions he was very tired, and well content to lie still. It was not long, however, before he essayed another attempt, and getting his hind legs well apart, he arose on them, and after a mighty struggle, stood up on all four. True, he trembled and swayed a good deal, but he was more cautious than before and did not try to walk until he had secured a perfect balance. Then making a few staggering steps, he lurched against his mother, after taking a few invigorating pulls at her distended udder, which filled him with a new ambition, and when his mother moved off into the denser timber, stepping daintily and slowly along, looking back with maternal anxiety at her wobbling offspring, he followed unsteadily after.

He did very well for a few rods, until his foot struck a snag of an old up-rooted tree stricken by a storm many years before and he fell into the cav-

New Church Forming in Valley Area

A new Congregational-Christian church to serve the Sierra Madre-Arcadia area will be established immediately as a result of a preliminary meeting held last week.

Weekly meetings Thursday nights at 8 p.m. will begin tonight at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert T. Case, 2512 S. Santa Anita, Arcadia. Sunday evening vespers services are planned for the near future.

Nearly 50 persons met last week with Dr. Henry David Gray, pastor of South Pasadena's Oneonta Congregational Church, and with the Rev. Raymond Waser, pastor of the Pasadena First Congregational Church, to plan the initial meetings.

Attending the session were residents of Sierra Madre, El Monte, Temple City, San Gabriel, Monrovia, and San Marino.

To assist in the first meetings of the new church and to speed selection of a site and minister, six committees were set up at the meeting. It was pointed out that at present there is no Congregational Church serving the eastern end of San Gabriel Valley.

ity left by its roots. It was very comfortable, however, with its deep bed of dried leaves. He was very tired and the warm dinner he had just had made him very drowsy, so tucking his little black nose just back of his foreleg, he was soon fast asleep.

Mrs. Miller
Dies at Home

On Friday, Oct. 19, Margaret (Collie) C. Miller passed away at her home in Pasadena.

She was born in Riverside on Dec. 8, 1909, and was a graduate of Pomona College. During the early thirties she worked as a supervisor in the Los Angeles area for the State Relief Association.

Active in the civic life of this community, Mrs. Miller was a past president of the Sierra Madre Woman's Club, during which time she served as a member of the City Recreation Commission. She later was a member of the Public Library Board and an energetic worker in the Red Cross.

Mrs. Miller leaves her husband, Dr. J. Stadden Miller; a son, Stephen, and a daughter, Barbara.

Private services were held this week. Those who wish to express a tribute of friendship are asked to donate a book to the library.

AS THE POSTER in the background suggests, these people are plugging the "Field Fair," carnival sponsored by the Eugene Field School P.T.A., to be held Saturday, Oct. 27. Displaying some of the prizes to be offered at the many booths, and looking quite festive in their hats and leis, are Mrs. Ward Clark, P.T.A. president at the school in Hastings Ranch; Mrs. Gordon Doyle, finance chairman. The person at the left? No, that isn't Napoleon returning from a foraging trip abroad. It is J. Raymond Haworth, principal of Field School. The carnival fun-making will continue from 2 to 9 p.m.

FIELD SCHOOL P-TA PLANS
SECOND ANNUAL CARNIVAL

"Field Fair," second annual carnival of the Eugene Field School P.T.A. will be held Saturday, Oct. 27, from 2 to 9 p.m., on the school grounds at 3600 Sierra Madre Boulevard, Hastings Ranch. Entertainment is planned for the entire family, and a hot dinner will be served from 5 to 7:30. During the day and evening homemade tacos will be sold, as well as hot dogs, cake, cookies, ice cream, popcorn, and soft drinks.

The Mothersingers will sponsor square dancing from 7 to 9. A popular attraction for children will be pony rides and a pony cart, and movies are scheduled in the auditorium.

Room mothers are sponsoring fun booths for each classroom, and character education groups and Field fathers also will have booths.

Among the games requiring skill and a certain amount of luck will be water pistols and candles, rings and bottles, balloons and darts, milk bottles and balls, make-up for boys and girls, fishbowls and ping-pong balls, dart guns, a fancy hat booth, confetti cascades, muffin pans and balls, caricatures, "hop the teacher" booth, and various guessing games.

A lawn swing will be auctioned, and many worthwhile prizes will be awarded contest winners. Another unusual feature of the carnival is a "parcel post sale."

Mrs. Gordon H. Doyle, carnival chairman, and Mrs. Ward R. Clark, P.T.A. president, announce that proceeds from the carnival will be used for the P.T.A. welfare fund.

An Editorial:

GOBLIN NIGHT DRAWS NIGH

Goblin night is upon us again—and it's time for a reminder to lay in a stock of sweets for ransom payments to the "trick or treats" raiders, and prepare to express the proper terror at grotesque masks and grinning pumpkins.

Probably the night is as much fun as ever for the youngsters of this generation—yet there is something missing in this age from the Halloween of years gone by. One needn't be very far along in years to remember when Halloween was a pretty rambunctious occasion all over. It was fun, all right—but sometimes rough fun. Gangs of lads up to the age of 20 dragged away everything that wasn't nailed down—from farm gates to trucks; paint was daubed on houses, and a busted window was a minor casualty.

Generally now only the small children ring doorbells. They're content with their treats—and by nine or ten o'clock are back home watching television. Perhaps that explains the change. Before the auto and movies and radio came, and now television, the one great night of release from restraint and monotony was something to look forward to eagerly and remember long afterward.

But what are we saying? What is missing is only in the minds of adults—not in the minds of today's young hopefuls. Editorials like this might inspire them to show us old mossbacks they can put on a Halloween that would fade any we ever staged. Best to let well enough alone! Tricks or treats, come to think of it, is dandy little custom!

When thinking about that long distance business trip, just stop a minute and consider the possibilities of the long distance telephone. Let your voice do your traveling and save money and time. Long distance telephoning is so much cheaper and quicker than long distance traveling.

And these days Long Distance Telephone efficiency is really remarkable. The cost of a coast to coast call is only $2.50 (plus tax) for three minutes—lower Sundays and holidays.

FRIENDS FETE ART MORSES ON GOLDEN ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. Art Morse, residents of Sierra Madre for 18 years, celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversary October 21st. Open house was held at their residence at 306½ Mariposa street Sunday afternoon and over a hundred guests, including the family and members of the Kiwanis Club of Sierra Madre were present.

Members of the family in attendance included Mr. and Mrs. Charles Morse and family of Sierra Madre, Mrs. Carl Mallory and daughter, and Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Morse and family, all of Pasadena. Also present was Mrs. Lita A. Linn of Glendale, cousin of Mrs. Art Morse, who was ring bearer at the Pasadena wedding of fifty years ago.

Befitting the occasion, the Morse home was decorated with many flowers, including great golden chrysanthemums. The table was set with golden table cloth, and cream candles in crystal candlesticks graced the three-tiered wedding cake appropriately topped with a golden wreath bearing the number "50". Mrs. Charles Morse cut the cake and Mrs. Melvin Mallory and Mrs. Carl Mallory poured. The two oldest granddaughters, Doreen Mallory and Anne Morse, assisted with the serving while Mary Anne Morse, also a granddaughter, presided over the guest book.

Continuing the festivities, buffet supper was served in the evening for the family and members of the Sunshine Club, to which Mr. and Mrs. Morse have belonged for 35 years.

Mr. Morse has been a member of the Kiwanis Club of Sierra Madre for 18 years and is its present treasurer. He was in business in Pasadena for 30 years, and shortly before moving to Sierra Madre, became agent for the Pasadena newspapers in the Sierra Madre area. He recently retired from active business.

HOW TO MINIMIZE SMOG DAMAGE TO YOURSELF AND FAMILY
While smog is less offensive in this community than in areas to the south and southwest, it is an important hazard to all who spend their working days in the smog infested metropolitan areas. As we pointed out last week smog does actually contain many noxious poisons. It is highly irritating to all respiratory tissues and the membranes of the eyes.

- HEALTH HABITS TO DEVELOP
1. Since plenty of oxygen is the most important factor to combat smog damage to the body, all daily activities should be directed by the thought of abundant oxygen all 24 hours of the day. It may be contaminated heavily with smog, but it is still the most precious ingredient for life-maintenance. If you are getting plenty of oxygen your body can throw off most of the irritating and toxic effects of the contaminating substances.
  2. Get some exercise every day which will stimulate natural deep breathing. To sit quietly and breathe deeply may produce hyperventilation, which is not desirable.
  3. Sleep with abundant ventilation. This can be easily arranged without having a draft blowing right over you.
  4. Eat wisely. Most of your diet should consist of meat, vegetables and fruits. Go lightly at all times on sugar and starches. Meat was the staff of life long before bread was invented. If you want your children to be free of colds, see that they don't eat so much bread or sweets.
  5. Since all our foods are produced for quantity, everyone who takes a long-range view of their own health will take multi-vitamin and mineral tablets every day. It is the only insurance against hidden hunger and diseases of premature old age, except
  6. Chiropractic treatments. Everyone who appreciates health enough to take sensible steps to preserve and improve it should have regular chiropractic treatments two or more times a month. Chiropractic treatments eradicate the tension which builds up daily in the nerves and muscles. They enable the respiratory mechanism to function at the maximum of efficiency. They give a release of undreamed-of energy which make a glow of strength and well-being unknown to those who have overlooked this important contribution to health insurance.

More details will be given next week on colds and smog-breathing.

AMERICAN CREED REPRINTED IN CONGRESSIONAL RECORD

"An American Creed," which originated in Sierra Madre last summer, has been reprinted in the United States Congressional Record.

It probably marks the first time Sierra Madre has been mentioned specifically in the Record.

The creed was introduced on Oct. 8 by Sen. Richard W. Nixon of California, who stated:

"Mr. President, I call to the attention of the Members of the Senate a statement entitled 'An American Creed,' which was prepared by a group of Sierra Madre, Calif., business and professional men who believe that a restatement of the moral principles of the men who founded the United States of America may well be of value in these times. I ask that the statement be printed in the Appendix of the Record."

In another communication to Sierra Madre this week, Gen. Douglas MacArthur's aide-de-camp acknowledged receipt of a copy of the creed.

The letter was addressed to a Sierra Madre resident whose efforts have been largely responsible for the creed's wide circulation. He asks to have his name withheld.

Through his aide, General MacArthur expressed approval of the creed and thanked the local citizen for calling it to his attention.

Other features of the huge show will include costly antique automobiles, foreign cars from nearly every civilized country, Detroit manufacturers technical exhibits, custom built machines, "classic cars," boats, motorcycles and aircraft.

Sea Scouts Prep For Rendezvous

Sierra Madre Sea Scouts are "putting all they have" into preparations for the annual "Rendezvous," Nov. 23, 24, and 25, according to R. G. Barrett, district Boy Scout commissioner.

The Rendezvous, which brings together Sea Scouts from all over the Southland, will be held at Long Beach Marine Stadium. Honors go to the units demonstrating the most skill in seamanship and Scout craft.

Sierra Madre's Sea Scout Ship No. 1 is growing fast, Mr. Barrett said, now numbering about 24 boys.

While the Rendezvous is being conducted for Senior Scouts, the regular "Caravan" will be held during the same weekend for Boy Scouts.

Betsy Burghardt was elected leader's representative.

The troop is planning a Halloween cook-out on October 29th at the home of Mrs. Mack on Rancho Road. Hamburgers will be prepared on tin-can stoves. The new members of the troop are planning the entertainment for the evening.

Troop 15 is working hard on a model Girl Scout camp to be displayed during Girl Scout Week which begins Sunday.

HULLS LEAVE ISLANDS, HEAD FOR ARIZONA

After several weeks of vacationing in the Hawaiian Islands, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur S. Hull returned to the United States this week to spend the next phase of their trip at Kingman, Arizona.

The Hulls, prominent Sierra Madreans, report they are having "a grand time." They flew to Kauai for two days and to Hawaii for another two days. "We were given leis of orchids everywhere we went," the couple wrote in a message to the NEWS. "And in Hilo, they grow in everyone's garden."

Mr. and Mrs. Hull sailed Oct. 17 for the United States aboard the Lurline. They expect to remain in Arizona a month.

Scout 'University' Will Close Tonight

Tonight's is the concluding session of the "University of Scouting" held for four weeks at McKinley Junior High School in Pasadena.

According to R. G. Barrett, Sierra Madre Boy Scout District commissioner, 15 Scouts (adult leaders) and several den mothers have been regularly attending the "university."

Each session has been averaging more than 450 people from throughout the San Gabriel Valley, Mr. Barrett reported.

Woman Concedes Hydrant Was There

Mrs. Edward Stiles, 217 N. Lima, was fined $5 Saturday morning for parking her car in front of a fire hydrant on North Auburn avenue.

"I drove by there this morning to see if a hydrant really was there," Mrs. Stiles told Judge John Mead. "It was," she added candidly.

County Men Tour Site of Riding Trail

Four Los Angeles County officials came to Sierra Madre Monday to study the proposed location of the county's riding and hiking trail through town.

With Assistant Street Superintendent Vern Udell as guide, the quartet toured the contemplated area between the northernmost dwellings of Sierra Madre and the mountains. Next step, according to Acting City Administrator R. Merritt Baker, will be to survey the area and run a tentative line for consideration by the City Council.

Making the advanced study Monday were B. P. Gruendyke, director of the County Department of Parks and Recreation; E. L. Lioret, county parks manager and trails coordinator; Paul R. Little, assistant trails coordinator; and Weston E. Blake, of the Division of Property Management in the office of the chief administrative officer, Gen. Wayne Allen.

Volunteer workers will staff the Woman's Clubhouse, scene of the Sierra Madre Blood Bank, on Wednesday, Nov. 7, it was announced yesterday.

Names of staff aids, canteen workers, and registered nurses were listed by R. C. Lewis, chairman of the local Red Cross Chapter. These include: Mesdames Dan Strite, Lawrence Perry, Harold Roberts, Roberta Musselman, Milo Murray, M. A. Howe, Sewall Clark, C. F. Adams, Henry Nelson, J. W. Moore, Joseph Worthington, Marjorie Ellis, Sam Haskins, Noren Eaton, Harold Drury, W. O. Ballenger, Paul Burton, Ernest Waterhouse, Victor Woehler, John Woehler, Hall Perry, San LaSala, Ralph Jones, Albert J. Barkman, Miss Jean Woodward and Miss Shirlee Peterson.

Meantime, telephone solicitors were busy this week lining up volunteers for the hours between 3 and 7 p.m. Nov. 7. In addition to the individuals scheduled to donate their blood at that time, local business firms and service groups were volunteering as groups, Mr. Lewis said.

He pointed out that the quota for Sierra Madre is 200 pints, out of a national quota of 2,800,000.

"In view of the seriousness of the Korean situation," Mr. Lewis stated, "the people of Sierra Madre hardly need urging to persuade them to give their blood. We feel confident that we will make our quota and do our part for the cause of the United Nations."

Park Group Picnic Offers Games, Frolic

Saturday, Oct. 27, beginning at 1 p.m. is the day and time of the pot-luck picnic planned by the Sierra Madre City Park adult recreation group. The place? At the City Park, of course.

Numerous games and contests have been scheduled for the event, intended to entice new members into the group of adults which uses the park facilities every day.

Women of the group are working hard to make the picnic a success, with Mrs. Harry Howard in charge of refreshments, and Mrs. Percy Kortkamp heading the singing and games committee.

Among the entertainment features of the afternoon will be Hawaiian songs and dances presented by Miss Dorothy Smith and Mary Beth Johnson.

Contests and games will include chess, checkers, dominos, horseshoes, shuffleboard, bean bags, tug-of-war, nail-driving, animal imitations, dart board, potato races, and canasta. Ribbons will go to contest winners.

COMMUNITY FUND

$600; Campfire Girls, $761; YMCA, $500, and Toy Loan, $400.

"We depend on these groups for a well-rounded community," Mr. Warren stated. "And these groups cannot exist without our help. Proof of the good being accomplished by youth organizations alone is shown in the low delinquency rate in Sierra Madre."

Dr. Alan Burgess, publicity chairman, once again urged that people working out of town withhold at least 50 per cent of their donations to chest drives for the Sierra Madre campaign.

"Money given in other communities doesn't do organizations here a bit of good," Dr. Burgess remarked.

CITY GETS NEW POLICE OFFICER

City Councilmen hired Truman O. Harte Tuesday night as a new police officer for Sierra Madre.

His appointment brought the Police Department up to its "full strength"—eight officers. Officer Harte started work yesterday at a salary of $245 a month.

When Chief Gordon McMillan's recommendation was read, Councilman Noren Eaton asked:

"Did I understand you to say his first name was 'Truman'?" "That's two strikes on him right at the start," cracked City Attorney T. Guy Cornyn.

5,980,000 U. S. Defense Bonds were sold during the month of August.
